Founding Hospital in Moscow.
A movement is on foot in New York for the establishment of a founding hospital on a large scale, on the plan of that in Moscow, Russia.

The Moscow founding hospital is the largest in the world. It was organized by the Empress Elizabeth about one hundred years since, and has now a yearly fund of $1,000,000 for its support. There is a Lombard bank, and also a savings bank, attached to it. There are admitted yearly some twelve thousand children. These are not left, as in some other institutions of a similar kind, at the door of the building, but are taken openly, either by their mothers, or some friends, into an entrance room, set apart for that purpose. As we stopped a few moments in this room, we counted sixty women each with an infant in her arms, waiting, in single file, to make their deposit. No question is asked by the recording clerk, except "Has the child been baptized?" and if so, by what name?

The child is then registered, a number is placed around its neck, and figures upon its cot, while a receipt showing the same number is handed to the bearer of the child, in order to enable her to visit, or even claim it at any future period up to the age of ten years. The infant is then passed into another room and handed to its future foster parent, she being the woman who happens, at the moment, to stand at the head of the list amongst a number who are always waiting in attendance. These women are generally peasants from the country, who have, it was told us, themselves been depositors of their own children but a few hours before, or else mothers who have left their own children in the country to be brought up by hand, attracted by the wages and good quarters provided them in the institution. It is not supposed that even a majority of these children are illegitimate. The great proportion are left there by the parents from poverty, or from being in service.

The nurses have distinct apparel for each of the different wards in these vast buildings. Some have blue, others red and green caps. There were seven hundred nurses in this one hall alone. In passing from one ward to another we could not help remarking the clock-like regularity with which the whole establishment is conducted. There seems nothing omitted which good domestic management can suggest or medical art approve. The simple arts of washing and dressing are brought to perfection, and executed with great rapidity. The infants are bathed in copper tubs, lined with flannel, and they are dressed on down pillows, instead of the hard hoops or bony legs of modern nurses.

Never upon earth was there a more astonishing mixture of baby-flesh—big and little, red-nosed, blue and black-eyed, fat, lean, ruddy and white babies. It might be supposed that they would make a great deal of noise, but we only heard about forty or fifty small choruses while there. But suppose the whole number should start at once! Who can imagine the style of music of 6,000 baby voices, when they give up their mind to do it? But I suppose they spend most of their time in sleeping, and seem to be much given to eating and drinking. During the summer months several thousands of these children are sent out in the country to nurse. As soon as they become old enough, they are taught reading and writing, and the most intelligent are selected as teachers. The boys usually receive a military education, and a certain portion of them furnish recruits for the imperial army.

THE FASHIONS.—As the balmy skies of spring and the jolly face of the god of day look down on our fair city and melt the snow and mud heaps that have so long encumbered our principal thoroughfares, as well as our back alleys, the ladies begin to pay attention to the most becoming and attractive novelties that the Spring opening day has devised for the season. The spring opening day is fast approaching, and the modistes are in session, pondering over the latest Paris extravagances, and selecting and adapting for their patronesses the most appropriate and stylish toilets that the spring demands. There will be, however, little in the way of novelty in the spring fashions. Bonnets will be, if possible, smaller than ever, and milliners lament in vain over the decline of their business. The bonnets at present in vogue are such that almost any lady can make them for her own wear, and, of course, this injures the millinery business to a considerable degree. Yet, sooner or later, there must be a revolution in the styles of bonnets. A tiny piece of velvet, a flower and a ribbon, can never satisfy the demands of the feminine head, and already mutterings of discontent are heard.—N. Y. Herald.

POULTERER'S FRIEND.
A CERTAIN CURE FOR GAPES AND OTHER DISEASES IN
CHICKENS AND TURKEYS.
A Certain Preventive of Chicken Cholera.
Will prevent disease in all kinds of fowl, and promote an increase of fat. Read the following:
Jefferson, Frederick co., Md.,
July 22d, 1867.

Messrs. Clotworthy & Co.:
Gents—The wonderful cures which have been made by your Poultryers' Friend cannot fail to interest all who raise poultry. A gentleman of this village has been experimenting on chickens with the gapes. He tried your Poultryers' Friend, according to the directions, and it had the desired effect in removing the worm, effectually relieving the chicken at once. Since then I have had many calls for it, and it has been used extensively with the same result. It is of incalculable value to all who raise poultry.
Respectfully,

Cash accumulation on hand, $25,000,000
ALL BELONGING TO THE POLICY
HOLDERS OF THIS COMPANY.

To business men, and particularly to the mechanics and laboring men:
Have you provided for your families in event of your death?

It is the bounden duty of every good husband and father to make provision for his wife and children, and a LIFE POLICY is certainly the cheapest and surest means of accomplishing this end.

A man 30 years old, can at a cost of about TEN CENTS A DAY, secure to his family the sum of $2,000.

Think of this, and act promptly, for life is very uncertain.

THE MUTUAL
LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

THE ONLY PLACE WHERE A CURE CAN BE OBTAINED.

DR. JOHNSON has discovered the most Certain, Speedy, and only Effectual Remedy in the World for Weakness of the Back or Limbs, Strictures, Affection of the Kidneys or Bladder, Involuntary Discharges, Impotency, General Debility, Nervousness, Dyspepsia, Languor, Low Spirits, Confusion of Ideas, Palpitation of the Heart, Trembling, Dimness of Sight, or Giddiness, Disease of the Head, Throat, Nose, or Skin, Affections of the Liver, Lungs, Stomach, or Bowels—those Terrible Disorders arising from Solitary Habits of Youth—secret and solitary practices more fatal to their victims than the song of Sirens to the Mariners of Ulysses, blighting their most brilliant hopes or anticipations, rendering marriage, &c., impossible.

YOUNG MEN,
Especially, who have become the victims of solitary vice, that dreadful and destructive habit which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of Young Men of the most excellent talents and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entered the listening Senators with the thunders of eloquence, or walked to ecstasy the living lyre, may call with full confidence.

MARRIAGE.
Married Persons, or Young Men contemplating marriage, being aware of Physical Weakness, Organic Debility, Deformities, speedily cured.

He who places himself under the care of Dr. J. may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a physician.

ORGANIC WEAKNESS
Immediately cured and full vigor restored. This distressing affection, which renders life miserable and marriage impossible, is the penalty paid by the victims of impropriety. Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, when that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the power of procreation is lost, sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent? Besides being deprived of the pleasure of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms of both body and mind arise. The System becomes deranged, the Physical and Mental Faculties Weakened, Loss of Procreative Power, Nervous Irritability, Dyspepsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion, Constitutional Debility, and Wasting of the Frame, Consumption, Decay and Death.

DR. JOHNSON,
